

Chairman of the Council

The Council elects the Chairman each May. The Chairman's role is to chair the full council meetings in a politically neutral manner and to uphold the Standing Orders and members Code of Conduct.

The Chairman's role is also to act as an ambassador for Willaston when attending meetings on behalf of the Council, community events or civic functions. The Chairman takes precedence over other civic leaders such as town mayors at functions taking place in Willaston – with the exception of the Mayor of Cheshire East, the High Sheriff or Lord Lieutenant of Cheshire.

The Chairman wears the Chain of Office when chairing Council or attending community events or civic functions.

The Vice-Chairman of the Council is also elected each May. The Vice-Chairman will deputise for the Chairman if he or she is unable to attend meetings, community events or civic functions.
